

Now This Is Some Scrum Fun!

Photos by Sharon Castro

SARATOGA SPRINGS — A beautiful afternoon on Saturday, April 30 brought out a big crowd of rugby fans and supporters to the Skidmore's Saratoga Rugby Grounds, as the Saratoga Rugby Club hosted the inaugural Saratoga Collegiate Cup Sevens. Eight collegiate teams competed (Siena and RPI fielded two squads each) on two regulation fields. The atmosphere was often electric and the spectators were appreciative of the hard, spirited play throughout. Results:

Pool A

University of Hartford 4-0

RPI 3-1

Saratoga Rugby Club Collegiate 2-2

SUNY Plattsburgh 1-3

Siena College B 0-4

Pool B

Molloy College 4-0

SUNY Oswego 3-1

William Paterson College 2-2

Siena College 1-3

RPI B 0-4

Cup Semi's: University of Hartford

12 vs SUNY Oswego 24

Cup Semi's: Molloy College 35 vs

RPI 5

Shield Final: Siena B over RPI B

(forfeit)

Bowl Final: SUNY Plattsburgh 12

vs Siena College 10

Horseshoe Final: Saratoga Rugby

Club Collegiate 19 vs William

Paterson College 17

Plate Final: University of Hartford

36 vs RPI 0

Cup Final: Molloy College 26 vs

SUNY Oswego 12

Tournament MVP: Andre Florent,

Molloy College

Fastest Rucker Contest (100 meter

sprint, picking up ball at midfield

and scoring at other end): Troy Solt,

University of Hartford

- Arthur Gonick

Tournament MVP Andre Florent, Molloy College

Spa Catholic Golfer Ethier Commits to Hobart and William Smith Colleges

SARATOGA SPRINGS — With multiple college offers from Southern and Midwest schools, Saratoga Central Catholic senior Scholar-Athlete Chloe Ethier has committed to Hobart William Smith Colleges for her collegiate career.

While other high school female golfers played on the girl's team, the Saints' Ethier was a member of the boy's squad for 5 years. During that period, Spa Catholic's boy's golf team were Section 2 champions three times.

Ethier who played from the men's tees since the eighth grade, was a two-time WAC All-star and a career 66-2 in match play. She was also the first Saratoga native to qualify for the Boy's Sectionals since Dottie Pepper.

Ethier, who was recruited for basketball, also played volleyball and track. She was a WAC Basketball All-star and Scholar Athlete. Ethier will leave Spa Catholic with 16 varsity letters - the girl's record at the school. Congratulations, Chloe!

